

INSTRUCTORS NEEDED

The Philadelphia Education Fund, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, recently received grant funding to operate a 4-week summer enrichment program for rising juniors enrolled in its College Access Programs across five Philadelphia public high schools.

OVERVIEW

- July 26-August 19, 2021
- 4 days of in-person instruction/ week (Monday-Thursday)
- 9:30 am-12:00 pm (10 hours/week)
- Center City location
- Class size capped at 24 students
- On-site behavioral support

QUALIFICATIONS

- Certified high school teacher OR post-secondary instructor
- Experience working with diverse low-income HS students
- Experience with English language-learners a plus
- Valid PA clearances

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- English classes: students will produce an original "personal memoir" in the style of the Common App personal statement
- Math classes: students will review basics of Algebra 1, as aligned with material on Keystone & SAT exams

COMPENSATION

- $900 per week, inclusive of prep time

INTERESTED?

Email resume to Madeline Birkner

mbirkner@philaedfund.org
by July 20

Philadelphia Education Fund
College Access Program

Philadelphia Education Fund
718 Arch St. Suite 700N
Phila, PA 19106