

INSTRUCTOR NEEDED: ENGLISH COMPOSITION

Scholars Advantage is a paid summer academic enrichment program designed for rising 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students attending Philadelphia public high schools.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Program participants will:

- Read a variety of formal analytical/non-fiction writing drawn from investigative journalism, sociology, history, law/government, and other sources within a Socratic-style seminar
- Strengthen English compositional skills, such as: brainstorming, research, organization of ideas, presentation of evidence, and critical peer review
- Strengthen their understanding of the conventions/mechanics of English writing such as: spelling, grammar, punctuation, syntax, and academic formatting
- Understand the importance of attributing ideas through citations
- Review standards of academic integrity at collegiate level and the consequences of plagiarism
- Produce a short, original piece of research- and evidence-based analytical writing about a social issue of local or personal interest

4 week program begins July 2022

In-person 4 days/week, 2.5 hours/day

Instructor compensation is $900/week
(inclusive of prep)

CLICK HERE
TO SUBMIT AN INTEREST FORM